Membership Requirements

One to Change the World Society is an exclusive group designed to connect young, influential leaders in Los Angeles and San Francisco who want to end factory farming. Composed of thought leaders, OCW Society realizes the global mission of Mercy For Animals to construct a compassionate food system by reducing suffering and ending the exploitation of animals for food.

Members will be afforded an important, valued voice in the growth of Mercy For Animals. They will connect with peers through a variety of events and interactions and will have an opportunity to build a cohesive, community-oriented group of local residents with deeply held shared values.

Given the important role these leaders will play, OCW Society is by invitation only.

Objectives

1. Advance Mercy For Animals' mission by drawing on the leadership expertise and the professional and personal networks of members
2. Foster connectedness and a strong sense of community among like-minded leaders in members' cities of residence
3. Cultivate innovation by providing opportunities for members to connect with and advise Mercy For Animals staff and leadership
4. Attend highly visible events showcasing Mercy For Animals' community and achievements
5. Set the philanthropic standard through charitable gifts and fundraising efforts in support of Mercy For Animals
